

I oppose the petition for automatic upgrade. One purpose of Amateur Radio is to provide a pool of radio operators with expertise in both operating practices and electrical/electronics practices and theory. I recently upgraded from Advanced to Extra, and must admit that reviewing the theory and practices was well worth the effort. Automatic upgrade removes the incentive to gain this expertise and knowledge - and years of experience does not automatically guarantee this expertise.